BOD Reports

- President –
 - BBQ expenses came out to be $460. Received good feedback from membership about the event.
- Vice President –
 - Pro shop in Wrightwood, CA was broken into and merchandise stolen. This is the 2nd such incident in SoCal this summer. Police report from the Kit Carson burglary to be sent to Wrightwood for reference.
 - SIMA charity event at was a success. Aces to be invited back next year. Need more volunteer help to run this kind of event in the future. This along with the Rob Machado are great opportunities for public exposure and sponsorships.
 - The California State Flying Disc Championships planning is undersay and to be held September 17-18 at Kit Carson Park.
 - The Aces Flymart booth at PDGA Pro Worlds was a bust due to scheduling conflicts and unresponsive tournament organizers. Received refund.
- Treasurer –
 - Current balance is $3420.30.
 - Reviewed information sheet needed for finding a new bank
 - Michelle announced that she is moving north to the L.A. area, but plans to continue to serve as Ace's Treasurer for the remainder of the year.
- Secretary –
 - Reported activities by Aces members in preparation for the Sun Valley Open. Tee mats and baskets delivered to SV along with course prep labor. TD Dave Parnell very appreciative of the Aces support.
- Membership Director –
 - 17 additional memberships received.
 - Problems with unreadable membership forms. Those collecting memberships need to ensure the forms are filled out legibly.
